The Washington-Monument

Led by Sarah Rice

This tour is perfect for our first-timers in Washington and those who simply can't get enough of the fantastic views from the Monument. Sarah already organized the tickets and offered to lead our group up to the Monument. Please see Sarah right after the HAUS Jahresversammlung. Thank you, Sarah!

Please scan the barcode to see the list of restricted items for your visit to the Washington - Monument:

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

Suggestion by Stephanie Cabell

The Basilica of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception offers a fantastic walk through of this stunning architectural structure on the campus of Catholic University (CU). That could be paired with a short walk to the neighboring Brookland neighborhood. The Brookland neighborhood is dubbed "Little Rome" because of the presence of the Franciscan Monastery, the Basilica, and CU are located there. The area also has great eateries, shops and and some historical buildings that are part of the African American Heritage Trail. Thank you, Stephanie!
